USE OF LIBRARY LICENSED ELECTRONIC RESOURCES

Tulane University Libraries license electronic resources (e.g. databases, electronic journals, e-books, etc.) for use by current Tulane University faculty, students, and staff. The use of licensed electronic resources is for academic courses and research, career/interview research, and personal enrichment only, and not for commercial purposes, e.g. employers, internships, consulting, etc. This policy applies to all library licensed electronic resources, whether they are accessed on campus or from a remote location.

Tulane’s ability to provide access, authorize use, and permit reproduction of licensed electronic resources is governed by contractual license agreements and U.S. Copyright Law. Misuse or violation of these restrictions may result in the termination of access to the electronic resource; each user is responsible for complying with the terms and conditions of these licenses and may be liable for any copyright infringement he or she may commit.

You are additionally prohibited from:

- Systematically downloading, saving, or distributing significant portions of these licensed electronic resources beyond what is allowed by copyright and/or the license.
- Systematically downloading database content using robots, scripts, or other software programs.

Failure to comply with Tulane’s Library Licensed Electronic Resources Conditions of Use policy may have legal consequences and may result in suspension or termination of access; and disciplinary actions in accordance with applicable university policy.
