Reflection. What are the key concepts expressed in my proposal?

How do I plan to

...develop a thorough understanding of my topic in order to communicate it via visual means?

...establish a broad understanding of the most relevant work on my topic (to include precedent research and literature review)?

As you search, build your working research word bank here.

As you search, which sources and resources show potential for your topic?